Confidential Report: (Comments of Chief Arbiter, failing that Organizer)

These should refer to the Arbiter's knowledge of the Laws, the Pairing Rules used and other regulations. Also his/her objectivity, ability to cope with any incidents that arose and consideration for the protection of players from disturbance and distraction.

Michael Forster had a good knowledge of the Laws and he was capable of working in the tournament hall, dealing well with time-trouble and any questions asked by the players.

He showed that he could cope with the English Chess Federation manual pairing system. The Weekend Major was part of the much larger Hastings International and Michael learned a lot from working alongside a strong team of arbiters.

Recommendation: (Delete one of the following statements).
