Confidential Report (Comments of Chief Arbiter)

These should refer to the Arbiter's knowledge of the Laws, the Pairing Rules used and other regulations. Also his/her objectivity, ability to cope with any incidents that arose and consideration for the protection of players from disturbance and distraction.

Helen is an excellent arbiter with a thorough knowledge of the Laws of Chess and regulations relating to tournament organisation. She has absolute objectivity and is able to anticipate any potential problems that may arise. She is able to officiate independently without supervision. The tournament ran flawlessly due to her high level of technical skills.

The organizer is responsible for providing the above certificate to each Arbiter who in the opinion of the Chief Arbiter has qualified for an International Arbiter norm and who requests it before the end of the tournament. If the certificate is for the Chief Arbiter it should be based on the judgment of a previously authorized official who should be an International Arbiter.

When applying for the IA title, the applicant's federation must attach to this form the Tournament Report form (IT3) and a copy of any appeals decisions.
